N: One shot was fired

Skepyak, a machinist, said he and his wife have a 10-year-old son and a 7-year-old daughter. He was at work during the incident and was called by police after it was over.

MUELKEN WAS HIRED in August 1973 as a driver for Computer Graphics Inc., according to Wendell Stark, the company's president, who said Muelken was "fairly quiet, but always friendly."

Muelken was described by Mya Doll, his supervisor at work, as "an easy-going, decent guy."

Miss Doll said Muelken had "always been very level-headed. He never gets frazzled, even when we have a lot of rush deliveries. And he's been pretty devoted. Even when he's sick he's been here working because he knew I needed him."

But Muelken had called Miss Doll Tuesday night to tell her he had the flu and might not report for work the next day, she said.

"I noticed at work that he'd gotten very quiet the past few weeks," Miss Doll said. "We were so busy I didn't have time to talk with him."

"I just can't believe that he'd hold someone hostage, that he'd do something like that," she said.

Scout assistant gets term in '76 rape of city boy, 11

An assistant scoutmaster who pleaded guilty last year to raping an 11-year-old member of his Boy Scout troop was sentenced today to one year in the Hennepin County Workhouse work-release program.

Hennepin District Judge David R. Leslie also ordered Martin Ronald Koski, 31, to participate in a rehabilitation program for sexual offenders after four months of court-ordered psychological evaluation.

Leslie, who could have sentenced Koski to up to 20 years in Stillwater Prison on the criminal sexual conduct charge, said he was impressed by Koski's cooperative attitude and his willingness to change his behavior. The work-release sentence means Koski can keep a job during the day, but must stay at the county facility at night.

Koski pleaded guilty last Dec. 28 to the rape of a Minneapolis boy who was helping him move furniture into Koski's apartment at 3104 Dupont Av. N. Koski had been an assistant scoutmaster for seven months at the time of the rape.
